EUCCHARISTIC MEDITATION
AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO (354–430): SERMON 33A.4

Jesus kept quiet about the rich man's name and mentioned the name of the poor man. The rich man's name was thrown around, but God kept quiet about it. The other's name was lost in silence, and God spoke it. Please do not be surprised. God just read out what was written in his book. ... You see, God who lives in heaven kept quiet about the rich man's name, because he did not find it written in heaven. He spoke the poor man's name, because he found it written there, indeed he gave instructions for it to be written there.

Arthur A. Just (ed.), Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture, New Testament III: Luke (Downers Grove: IVP, 2003), 261.

Volunteers Needed

The “jobs” (really: forms of service) on the volunteer rota are an important part of our life together. They serve the whole congregation in worship (music) and outside worship (refreshments), and provide instruction for the children in God’s word (Sunday school). We can’t do without them.

The rota currently has two problems:

1. It’s pretty empty
2. The same names are appearing very frequently

If the number of people offering their service is too small, the task becomes a burden. This is the case especially for Sunday school teachers, who miss the sermon every time they teach.

For your encouragement:

- The children are eager to learn
- Operating the computer that provides the music is really quite simple
- Men, too, are permitted to provide refreshments!
- Training is available for all the jobs listed

Please speak to the pastor if you have any questions
